SCHOOL CHILDREN'S MINDS WRECKED BY PRESENT METHODS

Made "Little Brutes" by Piling Rubbish Into Intellects, Says Prof. Sidis.

BEGIN AT TWO YEARS.

Father of Twelve-Year-Old Genius Opposes Fairy Myths and Spinsters' Teaching.

How Our Children Are Handicapped by

Improper Schooling. The American nation entrusts the ate of its younger generation to the seness of young girls, or the ire of old maids, all ruled by pettiforging officials encrusted with educational red tape methods of discipline and routine.

"America's school systems are uled by bureaucrats animated with satred toward talent and genius. "Mover in the history of mankind have school teachers fallen to such a low level of mediocrity as in our

"American children at the age of ten and eleven are little brutes and waste their most precious years of shildhood in close, dusty, over-

"There are in the United States 800,000 insane persons, while the rictims of psychopathic mental maladies reach into the millions. This is entirely preventable and is the result of our wretched brain-starying and mind-crippling methods of Bitterly assailing modern methods of ducation, which he characterizes as calculated to produce the largest possible number of mediocrities, Prof. Borts Sidis, M. A.; Ph. D.; M. D., father of the twelve-year-old genius who created a sensation at Harvard. to-day lasued a treatise on the proper way to care for children. Instead of the courses of study given to his son having harmed the child, Dr. Sidis insists that the youth is in far better physical condition than the average schoolboy four years older. His epigrams are expected to start a bitter controversy mong educators.

The proper way to educate a child is to begin at the age of two, says the

"By answering and encouraging all infantile questions," he continued, "the child will acquire knowledge with the same case as he learns to ride a bicycle. By the tenth year, if this method is followed, the child will have acquired knowledge which at present the university graduate only obtains with infinite labor and pain. We regard a child's mind as a vacant lot, and empty into it all of our rupbish. We labor under the delusion that fairy tale myths and deceptions about life are good for a child's mind, when the contrary is the case.

"Fathers and mothers must change existing methods. We cannot possibly expect of the Philistine-educator and andarin-pseudagogue the adoption of different views of education. The present school system squanders the re-sources of the country and wastes the energies, the lives of our children."

May Recount Bayonne Vote. The revised figures of the special election held in Bayonne, N. J., Tuesday to decide whether the city should have a commission form of government showed that the proposition had been defeated by three votes. There were seventy ballots rejected because they were improperly marked. The commission advocates have decided to apply for a recount.
